Newsletter #5 - April 2018

Welcome to Newsletter #5

Dear friends and colleagues,

This year's commission's main event, the CGE 2018 conference will be held in Québec City from August 3rd to 5th, 2018. The main theme of the conference — Appreciating similarity: sharing understanding — will be an opportunity to reflect upon and foster global understanding through geography education. From July 31 to August 6, the 2018 International Geography Olympiad (iGeo) will also be holding its activities at Université Laval. Immediately following the CGE International Conference, from August 6 to 10, are the joint meetings of the 2018 IGU Regional Conference, Annual Meeting of the Canadian Association of Geographers (CAG), and the Annual Conference of the National Council for Geographic Education (NCGE). These joint meetings will offer a range of sessions in geography education, field trips, workshops and other opportunities for social engagement. In addition to this extraordinary gathering of geographers, the location of the conference is worth the visit. Québec is a UNESCO World Heritage City, and the Université Laval is North America's oldest French-language university. The CGE 2018 International Conference promises to be an exceptional opportunity for global dialogue among geography educators. See more details below in the IGU CGE Conference News.

In addition, the IGU-CGE website has been completely re-designed. It has not just an updated structure and content, but since it's now a Wordpress site, it includes features such as an easy to find RSS feed, the possibility to subscribe to the newsletter directly on the site and a news-blog. We would like to express our thankful appreciation to Kathrin Viehrig of this wonderful redesign work for the community. Moreover, the IGU-CGE now also has a Twitter account (igu_cge).

Research in Geography Education

A reminder also for any new research in geography education to be added to our web-based template to collect and collate information on Geography Education MA, MEd, EDD and PhD theses around the world. Creating this collection will greatly enhance our knowledge about geographical and environmental education. The on-line spreadsheet can then be made available for researchers through the IGU-CGE website. We hope that all geography educators with the help of the regional representatives would be able to contribute information on the existing Geography Education theses.
